

JOHN CHARTER

ONE MAN ORCHESTRA

John Charter and state of the art technology, presents a night of music and entertainment to please a diverse range of audiences. Self contained musically, he is your complete night's entertainment from "dinner music", "dynamic floor show" to "dance till you drop".

As a dance band, John has a huge repertoire of music covering Nostalgia to Contemporary with the sound of a Big Band, yet the tight package of a solo entertainer. Sophisticated dinner music can also be performed live while your people are arriving and also while they are eating, so the event can have a full programme of soft music, A floor show can also be performed, then dance music and very importantly, can be "tailored for any special event".

John Charter brings a wealth of talent and experience, having been a Delltone at one time and also spending two years as musical director of TV's "Bandstand". He continued on a successful road as musical director to many top rating production shows and recording stars and was the producer and musical director at Stepping Out Theatre Restaurant in Penrith.

John continues to update his skills with the latest computer technology, which produces the best quality music and sound. Added to this is his talent as a multi-instrumentalist, being able to play keyboards, saxophones, trumpets, trombone and vocals.

John can help you with a format to best suit your event, be it big or small. He is only too happy to discuss how to help make your night a success and one to remember.
